

Sterling WORK

LA-based multimedia artist Sterling Ruby recycles scrap materials for his hallucinatory canvases and installations. Mayfair gallery Sprüth Magers' latest exhibition, Work Wear: Garment and Textile Archive 2008-2016, delves into Ruby's own archive of coats, ponchos and trousers and presents the paint-splattered garments (left) as artefacts in their own right. Until 9 April (spruethmagers.com)
